

levying of a special tax on all property in such township for said
Order for election.	purpose. Upon receipt of the aforesaid petition, it shall be the duty of the board of county commissioners of Brunswick County to cause an election to be held in such township, at the usual polling places therein, under the same rules and regulations now prescribed by law for election of members of the General Assembly, at which election the voters in such township favoring a special tax shall vote a ballot, either written or printed, or partly written and printed, "For Special Tax," and those opposed thereto shall vote a ballot, either written or printed, or partly written and printed, "Against Special Tax." Said board of commissioners shall cause twenty days notice of said election to be posted in three public places in said township, and said notice shall also be published at least twice in some newspaper published in said county, if one be published, prior to said election, which said notice shall set forth the date of election, names of registrars and judges of election, and the nature of ballot to be used, and therein stating the purpose of said election. The registrar and judges of election shall immediately after the election herein provided for certify the results of same to the board of county commissioners, who shall open said returns and declare the results thereof at the next regular meeting after said election shall be held. Any election held hereunder shall be held prior to the first day of June, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three.
Polling places.
Law governing election.
Ballots.
Notice of election.
Publication.
Details of notice.
Returns.
Canvass of returns.
Time for election.
Effect of election.	SEC. 3. That if a majority of the voters in any township holding an election hereunder shall vote for said special tax, it shall be the duty of the board of county commissioners to levy a special tax on all property, real and personal, in said township, of not less than five cents nor more than ten cents on the one hundred dollars valuation, which said special tax shall be levied, collected, accounted for and paid over as now provided for the levy and collection of other taxes, and the tax so collected shall be used for working and maintaining the roads in such township voting for special tax. A separate account of same shall be kept, and no part thereof used for any other purpose, and shall be paid out by the board of county commissioners upon the order of the road commission as created by chapter number seventy-three, Public-Local Laws of one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one, herein referred to.
Minimum of tax rate.
Levy and collection.
Use of proceeds.
Separate accounts.
Specific appropriation.
Effect on present law.	SEC. 4. That if at said election a majority of the voters in any township petitioning for an election hereunder shall vote against said special tax, then all of chapter number seventy-three, Public-Local Laws of one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one, shall be and remain in full force and effect, and it shall be the duty of said road commission to act as provided in said chapter.
Effect of law.	SEC. 5. That the provisions of this act shall affect only the method of working and maintaining roads as provided in chapter